

Water For Wildlife

Robbins Butte

Valley of the Sun Quail Forever

Volunteers Needed for VOTS Chapter Water Project

When: Saturday December 3, 2022 @ 8am

Where: Robbins Butte Wildlife Area in Buckeye, AZ

Thank you!

Save this date as we will be installing the 3rd mile of our ongoing chapter water project!

All the piping, water bowls and hardware will be ready to be placed in the desert and attached to the existing line. This water system provides good quality well water for the wild animals in the area but also for the dogs who are hunting or training as well! Lunch/water provided.

Please register to volunteer @ votsqf.com/volunteer

Summarize Project Accomplishments : The objective has been to bring water to wildlife to Robbins Butte. This was the third mile of pipe and water bowls installed to bring water to area's around the agricultural fields and through natural wildlife habitat. If history repeats itself based on the first two miles of pipe installed. The bowls will be used by deer, Javelina, Bobcats, Dove, Quail, song birds, lizards, snakes, mice and other rodents, coyotes, and fox. There is probably more species using the bowls that have not shown up on film yet.
