$600 Grant
for
14th Annual Native and Wild Trout Conference
April 6, 2023

The 14th Annual Native and Wild Trout Conference was deemed to be another success with 121 individuals registering from various conservation organizations, state and federal agencies. The survey ratings are consistent with the past several years where over ninety-five percent of the surveys rated the conference Good to Excellent.

The annual event has grown from 42 attendees in 2010 over the years representing a variety of conservation organizations, state and federal agencies.

This year Ty Gray, Director - AZGFD, and Chris Wood, CEO and President of Trout Unlimited, provided comments on the in-person return of the conference and the success of projects and programs over the years by the various organizations including the recently proposed delisting of the Apache trout from the endangered species list.

Sixteen presentations from various professionals of conservation organizations and governmental agencies addressed topics such as the protection of wildlife from the challenges of forest fires, native and wild trout protections and restorations (see attached agenda).

Two conservation awards instituted in 2014 to honor an organization (Apache Award) and an individual (Gila Trout) “for their dedication to the conservation, protection and restoration of native and wild trout” continued.

The 2023 Apache Trout Award was presented to the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation (NFWF). An under-recognized aspect of NFWF is the support provided that has been a true catalyst for productive collaboration among agencies, NGOs, universities, landowners, tribes, and the public. The synergy behind the above collaborative efforts, enabled by NFWF, continues to provide a critical push for more effective conservation of southwest trout.

The 2023 Gila Trout Award was presented to Kurt Davis. Prior to becoming an Arizona Game and Fish Department Commissioner, he volunteered his time, skills, and funding to help with conservation projects related to trout and other aquatic species in Arizona. He was a Commissioner for over eleven years, providing leadership to both the Commission and the Arizona Game and Fish Department (AZGFD) related to aquatic wildlife.

The agenda, information and presentations are available to the public for viewing at the Arizona Council of Trout Unlimited website at www.az-tu.com.
The $600 grant from AZSFWC was directed to sharing costs for providing awards, food, beverages and paper products for the event. Acknowledgment of the AZSFWC grant was made throughout the event, a postcard promoting the conservation license plate was included in each registrant’s bag, and the brochure Salt River – Tonto National Forest: Habitat Destruction by Feral Habituated Horses. Recognition was also included on the Thank You Funding Supporters slides that were shown throughout the presentation, flyers displayed on the registration website and at the food and conference registration tables (see various attachments).

The Arizona Council and four Arizona chapters thank you for your continued support in presenting this annual conference.

A Species in Time

Native to the cold waters along the central and southern mountains of California, the Gila Trout is a hardy fish that thrives in the mountain streams of the West. It is one of the rarest fish in the world, living only in the streams of the Gila and Salt River systems. Its habitat is characterized by clear, cold water and a variety of aquatic plants and insects, which provide food for the Gila Trout.

Fishing Tips

Rio Grande Cutthroat

Fishing at its Best:
- Early morning and late afternoon.
- High water and cold temperatures are ideal.
- Use nymphs and dry flies.

Larvae to Adults:
- Adult trout feed on invertebrates like mayflies and caddisflies.
- Fish feed on the larva during the spawning season.

Lifespan:
- 10 years

Habits:
-喜欢在浅水区和湍急的河流中觅食。
- 在高水温和低水温下表现最佳。

Diet:
- 主要以昆虫为食，尤其是蜉蝣和蝉。
- 喜欢在溪流中寻找食物。

Spawning Season:
- 5-15 miles upstream of the spawning grounds.
- 在春季产卵。

Fish Identification:
- 鳃盖内侧有黄色斑点。
- 背部有金属光泽。
- 鳍边有白色斑点。

Threats and Issues:
- 水质污染
- 水温变化
- 人类活动

Historic and Current Range:
- 河流上游的鱼会游向低水温的区域。
- 主要分布在河床和河湾。

Fishing Natives:
- 传统鱼类。
- 钓鱼技巧。

Check your state's fishing regulations.

REMEMBER:
Your Conservation License Plate Supports TU Programs

The Arizona Sportsmen for Wildlife Conservation (AZSFWC) license plate fund is derived from the sale of wildlife conservation license plates and member organizations as well as non-member organizations are eligible to apply for those funds.

The Arizona TU Council and Chapters have received funds over the past seven years in support of the Annual Native and Wild Trout Conferences and the Trout-In-the-Classroom programs.

The next time your registration comes up for renewal, choose the conservation license plate option at registration to show your support for conservation and our projects.

Not Just Another Pretty Plate

Arizona Sportsmen for Wildlife Conservation (AZSFWC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that sponsors the "Conserving Wildlife" license plate issued through the Arizona Department of Motor Vehicles.

Except for a small administrative fee, all money generated from the wildlife plate allows the AZSFWC to award grants to fund Wildlife Conservation Habitat Projects, Wildlife Education Programs and Youth Recruitment activities in Arizona.

SALT RIVER
TONTO NATIONAL FOREST
HABITAT DESTRUCTION BY FERAL HABITUATED HORSES

PHOTOS PROVIDED BY CENTER OF BIOLOGICAL DIVERSITY
WHY ARE WE REQUESTING THE HUMANE REMOVAL OF THE HORSES?

The Salt River area has become a barren moonscape of too many horses who have moved into the area from the adjoining Tribal lands. The unowned, feral horses are needing to be artificially fed to prevent mass starvation as they have denuded the area of natural forage that can only support approximately 40 horses at most according to the USDA livestock scientists. Even any essence of wildness has been lost to these horses as they now are habituated, equating humans with food. The area has now become a horse feedlot zoo.

While some humans desire to see “wild” horses, humans are responsible for taking care of the land.

And there are OTHER creatures, native wildlife, that deserve the land as well, but have been forced to abandon the area because of the lack of ground cover and food.

Healing the impact from these excessive numbers of horses will take decades to repair, even after the herd size has been reduced to a sustainable level.

Horses beyond a sustainable level, need to be removed through adoption and or to horse sanctuary areas.
1. Barren ground in any area that had native grasses.
2. Humans with children dangerously close to horses.
3. Beeline and bush highway fencing showing land devoid of grasses.
4. Horses eating mesquite tree leaves for food.
5. Habituated horses follow vehicles for alfalfa and hay for food.
6. Horses in river forced to eat non-nutritious vegetation for survival.
7. Feedlot environment in locations that horses gather for daily artificial feedings.
